

Story 14/80

THEY LIVE SO FAR AWAY...
HOW CAN WE TELL THEM?

Baby was born!

It's a little girl!

She is beautiful!

Finally!

Congratulations!

That's it,
she arrived!

It's a little girl!

She is beautiful!

*Small tiny feet
A little face to kiss
A pretty little girl to hug
Her name is Emma, arrived among us
January 18, 2020 at 8:30 p.m.*

Come!
Come home!

Come see how cute she is!

In the time of Jesus...

How was God going to do?

Gospel of Matthew chapter 2 verses 1 to 15

Why are these men making such a long trip?

HOW CAN WE FIND THE CHILD KING?

Look at this star!

It is a sign from God!

The promised Savior is born!

We will go and see Him and worship Him!

Where is the King who has just been born?

A king?

A king?

How could a king be possibly born?

A king?
How is it possible!

I am the king,
the king of the Jews!

Where is the promised Savior to be born?

In Bethlehem

Go to Bethlehem and come back.

I too will adore him.

A night scene with a bright star in a blue sky, people on camels, and a speech bubble. The sky is a deep blue with many small white stars. A single, larger, multi-pointed yellow star is prominent in the upper right. In the foreground, several people are riding camels. One person in the center is wearing a yellow and green robe and has their arms outstretched. Another person to the right is also pointing towards the star. The background shows dark, silhouetted mountains.

Oh ! Look!

It's moving and showing us the way.

They then set off
on their long journey back home...

A thought bubble with a yellow glow and a scalloped edge, containing the text "Do not go back to Herod!". The bubble is connected to three smaller yellow circles that trail off towards the top left corner. The background is a dark blue night sky filled with numerous small white stars.

Do not go back to Herod!

Flee to Egypt!

AND YOU AND ME!
