

WHO BROUGHT A DISABLED MAN TO JESUS?

A photograph of two children sitting on a wooden dock by a pond. The child on the left has blonde, curly hair and is wearing a red, blue, and white plaid shirt. The child on the right has dark hair and is wearing an orange t-shirt and blue jeans. They are both looking at a brown paper bag on the dock. A speech bubble above the blonde child says "It's too bad!". The pond is surrounded by tall green reeds and grasses. The water is calm and reflects the surrounding greenery.

Couldn't you take me to see him?

I didn't think about it!

Chapter 7

Gospel of

Mark

Who brought a disabled man to Jesus?

HE IS ALL ALONE IN FRONT OF JESUS?

We will see
him!

We will see
him!

Glory to God!
Thank you Jesus!

A man with a grey beard and a green turban is smiling and talking to another man. The man on the left is partially visible, wearing a light-colored robe. The background is a blurred green tree. A speech bubble is positioned above the man with the beard.

Glory to God!

A man with a grey beard and a green turban is speaking to another man. The man with the beard is wearing a brown robe and has a green turban. The other man is partially visible on the left, wearing a white robe. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with green foliage.

I can talk!
I can sing!
I can scream!

We did really well...

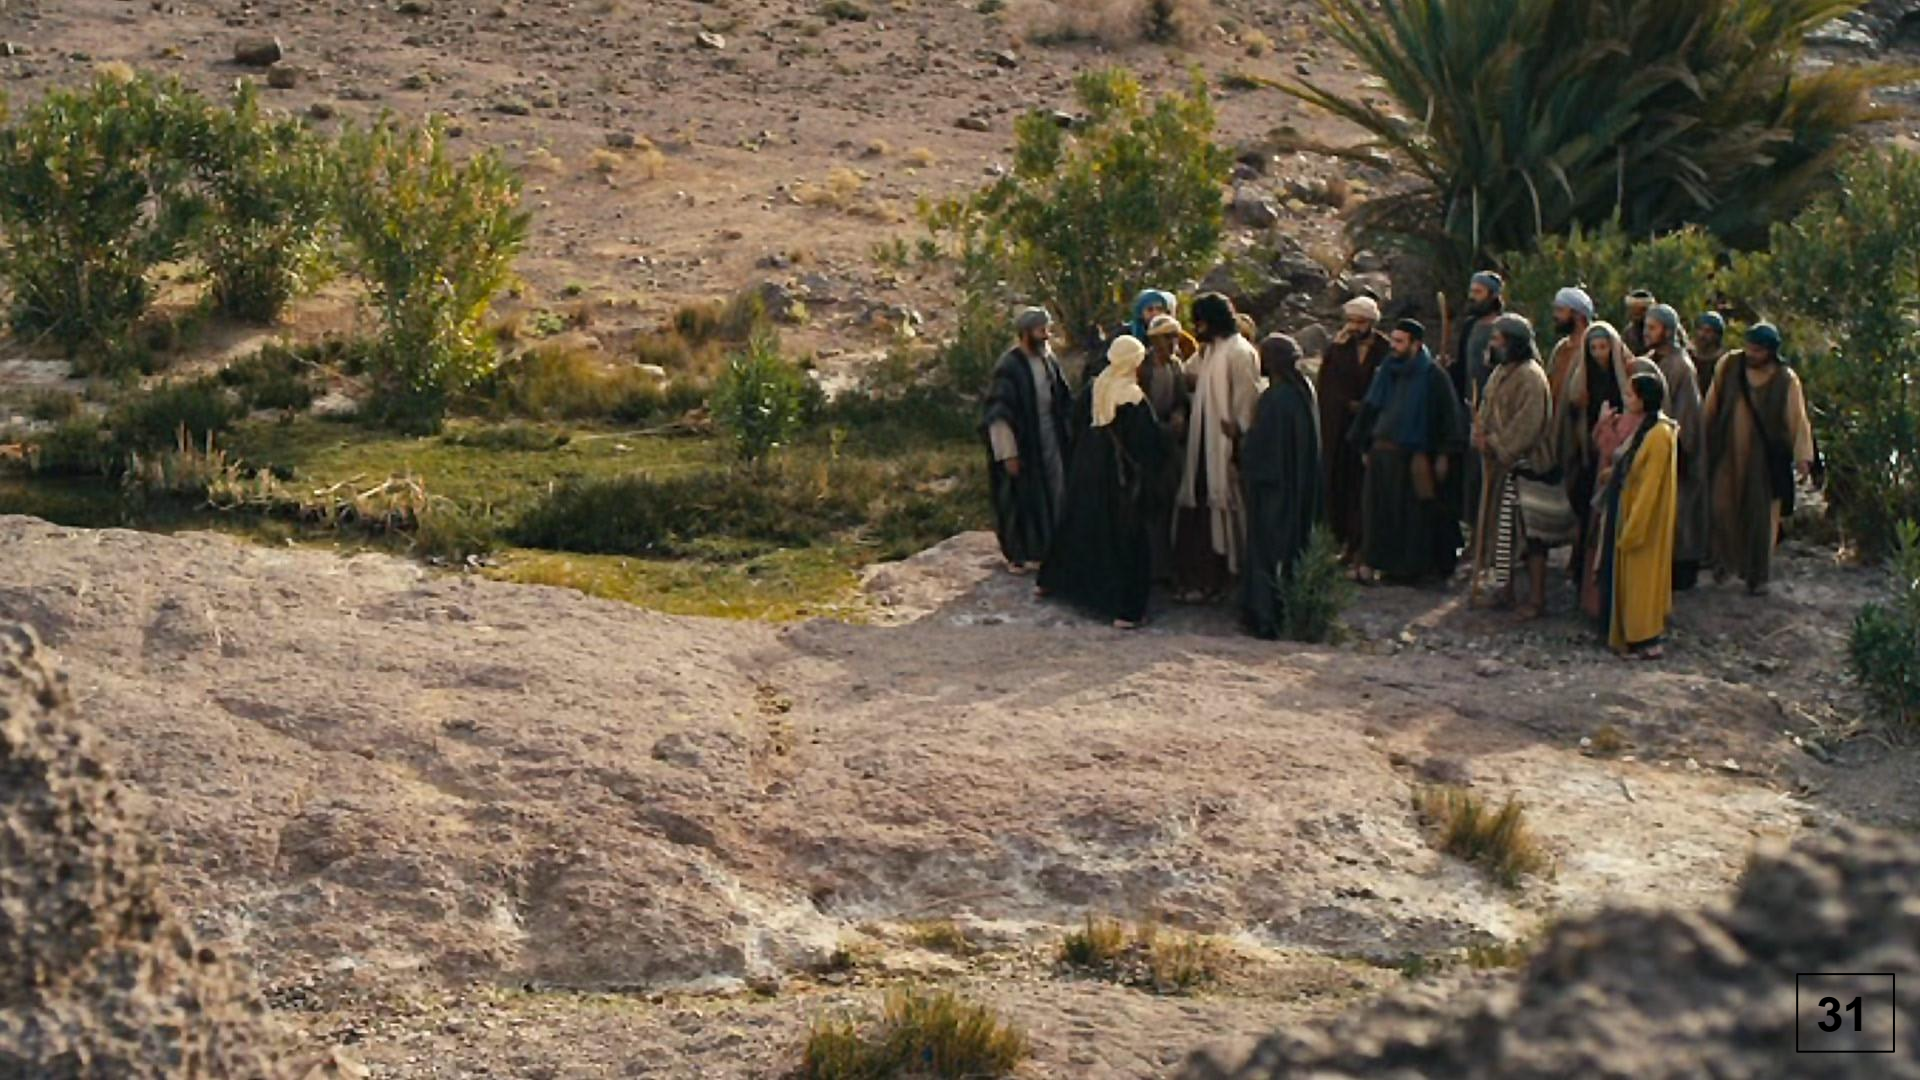

Yes!
We also!

A group of approximately 15-20 people, dressed in traditional, earth-toned robes and head coverings, are gathered on a rocky, arid hillside. The terrain is dry with sparse green bushes and a few palm trees in the background. A speech bubble with a yellow border and a white background points to the group, containing the text "Lord!". The scene is captured from a high angle, looking down at the group.

Lord!

Jesus has left everyone else
just to take care
of me!

Open up!

I hear everything!
I speak!

Jesus has done
all things well!

Glory to God!

AND YOU AND ME!
