

A TRIUMPHAL ARRIVAL

Slide 1

Have you seen any reports Slide 2 on the coronation of a king, or the visit of a head of state, of a president? The crowds come to cheer him. Slide 3 Journalists surround him. He arrives in a coach or Slide 4 a beautiful car, the red carpet is rolled out before him. He will make a speech and will attend a banquet surrounded by all the notables and ministers. It's a very important event.

Slide 5 One day it was Jesus who was hailed as a king. He made a triumphant entry into Jerusalem, the capital of the country.

We will discover this account that you will find in Slide 6 the Gospel of Luke in chapter 19. And here is Benji's question: Slide 7 What are all these children around Jesus doing?

Slide 8 JESUS ARRIVES IN JERUSALEM

Slide 9 Imagine a long procession of people of all ages, young, old, children. Those are the pilgrims who are going to Jerusalem for the great feast of the Passover; at the head of this procession, there is Jesus and his disciples. As they are approaching a village, Jesus says to two disciples:

Slide 10 - Go to the village, there in front of us. As soon as you enter it, you will find a female donkey tied there and her calf beside her. Untie them and bring them to me.

Slide 11 The disciples are surprised. How are they going to untie these animals?

Slide 12 What will people say? Jesus adds:

- If someone asks you: "What are you doing here! Why are you taking these animals?".

Slide 13 You will answer them: "The Lord needs them but don't worry us will bring them back", and they will let you take them. Do you know why Jesus is doing this? He will accomplish what a prophet foretold a long time ago.

Slide 14 - Jerusalem! Jerusalem, he had said, look! Your king is coming to you. He is humble and gentle. He is riding a young donkey.

Slide 15 Never have we seen a king sitting on a donkey. Kings proudly ride their most beautiful horses. They arrive as conquerors Slide 16 to the sound of trumpets, Slide 17 surrounded by their royal guard. They want to show their wealth and their power, their domination over the people. Slide 18 So does that mean that Jesus is not a king like other kings? Slide 19 The two disciples arrive in the village. At the turn of the path, they find a donkey and its young. They untie them.

Slide 20 - Hey! But what are you doing, these animals are ours! Why are you untying them?

Slide 21 - Because the Lord needs them. Slide 22 Be reassured! We will bring them back to you!

They let them go. Once near Jesus, they put their coats on the back of the young donkey Jesus sits on it. People lay out their clothes on the road as rugs. Others go to the fields.

Slide 23 They cut branches of palm trees, olive trees, twigs. Slide 24 They make him a guard of honor and praise God aloud.

Slide 25 - Glory to God! He has done great miracles for us! Glory to God!

They cry out for joy because they are convinced that Jesus will become the king of the land. He will drive out the Romans and make them all rich and happy.

Slide 26 - Hosanna! Hosanna! Blessed be the king who comes in the name of the Lord! He will deliver us from our enemies. He's going to be our king. Long live the king! Long live the king! Glory to God!

Slide 27 The children are jumping and screaming for joy. They praise God. But the religious men and the Pharisees get angry. They can't stand seeing the crowd cheering for Jesus.

Slide 28 - Don't you mind all this noise? They ask him. Can't you hear what they're saying! You could silence them, couldn't you!

Slide 29 - No! Not at all! Jesus answers them. If these people, who are there, keep quiet, if they stop glorifying God, then, the stones themselves will begin to cry out and praise God!

Slide 30 They are approaching Jerusalem. A great sadness seizes Jesus. He cries because he loves this city and its people and He knows that in a few years Slide 31 a great misfortune will happen because of their wickedness. He would like so much to save them from this catastrophe, but they don't want to hear anything. They still do not understand that he did not come to rule the country Slide 32 but to reign in their hearts, to change their lives.

Slide 33 - Ah! Jerusalem! He says. Slide 34 If you had understood how to be saved. If you recognized that I am the promised savior. If you wanted at last ask forgiveness for your sins and obey your God! But you do not understand it and a great misfortune will happen.

Slide 35 Jesus experiences great anguish. Tears are running down His face. Slide 36 They are now entering Jerusalem. The inhabitants are moved. They wonder.

Slide 37 - What's happening? Slide 38 Who is this king who comes seated on a young donkey? We have never seen that!

The cheerful crowd responds: Slide 39 - But! It's Jesus! Slide 40 This is Jesus, the prophet who comes from Nazareth! Slide 41 The king is coming on God 's behalf!

Slide 42 And the children, from the smallest to the oldest, are jumping for joy. They surround Jesus singing the praises of God with all their heart.

Slide 43 1, 2 3, 4 AND YOU AND ME!

Do you think you can be sad and happy at the same time? Slide 44 Yes it's possible.

When Jesus arrives in Jerusalem, He weeps because of the calamities that are to come and Slide 45 He rejoices in hearing the songs and the praises of the crowd and especially of the children.

What do you think makes him happy today? Slide 46 Yes, He rejoices when He hears children praise Him. Slide 47 Do you praise him? Do you remember to thank him?

I suggest that you think about all that He gives you every day, the air you breathe, Slide 48 the food that is on your plate, your parents, your friends and especially His goodness and His love for you. You will find many reasons to say: Slide 49 "Thank you Jesus! I praise you! Thank you for loving me!"

Slide 50 4, 3, 2, 1 AND WE PARENTS!

Despite the protests of the religious, not only did Jesus let the children praise him, but He found it normal that they did so, even if it was not in keeping with the religious standards.

It is good that our children learn from an early age to freely express the gratitude and praise. Let them spontaneously praise the Lord in their own way in their own words.

And we, let's be models, parents, who, like David, sing to God:

Slide 51 "Your goodness is better than life, My lips celebrate your praise.

I will bless you all my life, I will lift up my hands in your name"

You will find this text in Psalm 63.
