Story 68/80

WHY DOES JESUS NOT DEFEND HIMSELF?

1

A young boy with dark hair is crying, looking slightly to his right. He is wearing a blue zip-up hoodie with white and red lettering that includes 'CLUB' and '3'. The background is a blurred green field. A white speech bubble with a black outline points to the boy, containing the text 'It's not me, Dad!'.

It's not me,
Dad!

You will be punished!

A young boy with dark hair is shown from the chest up, sitting on a grassy field. He is wearing a blue zip-up hoodie with white and red lettering that includes 'CLUB' and '3'. He has a distressed expression, with his mouth open as if crying and his eyes looking down and to the side. A white speech bubble with a black outline is positioned to his right, containing the text 'It's not true!'.

It's not true!

It's not fair!

Punished on someone else's behalf

Why does Jesus accept to be condemned whithout defending?

JESUS IS AT THE TRIBUNAL

What did you do?

Come on!
Answer!

I didn't say anything in secret

Tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God!

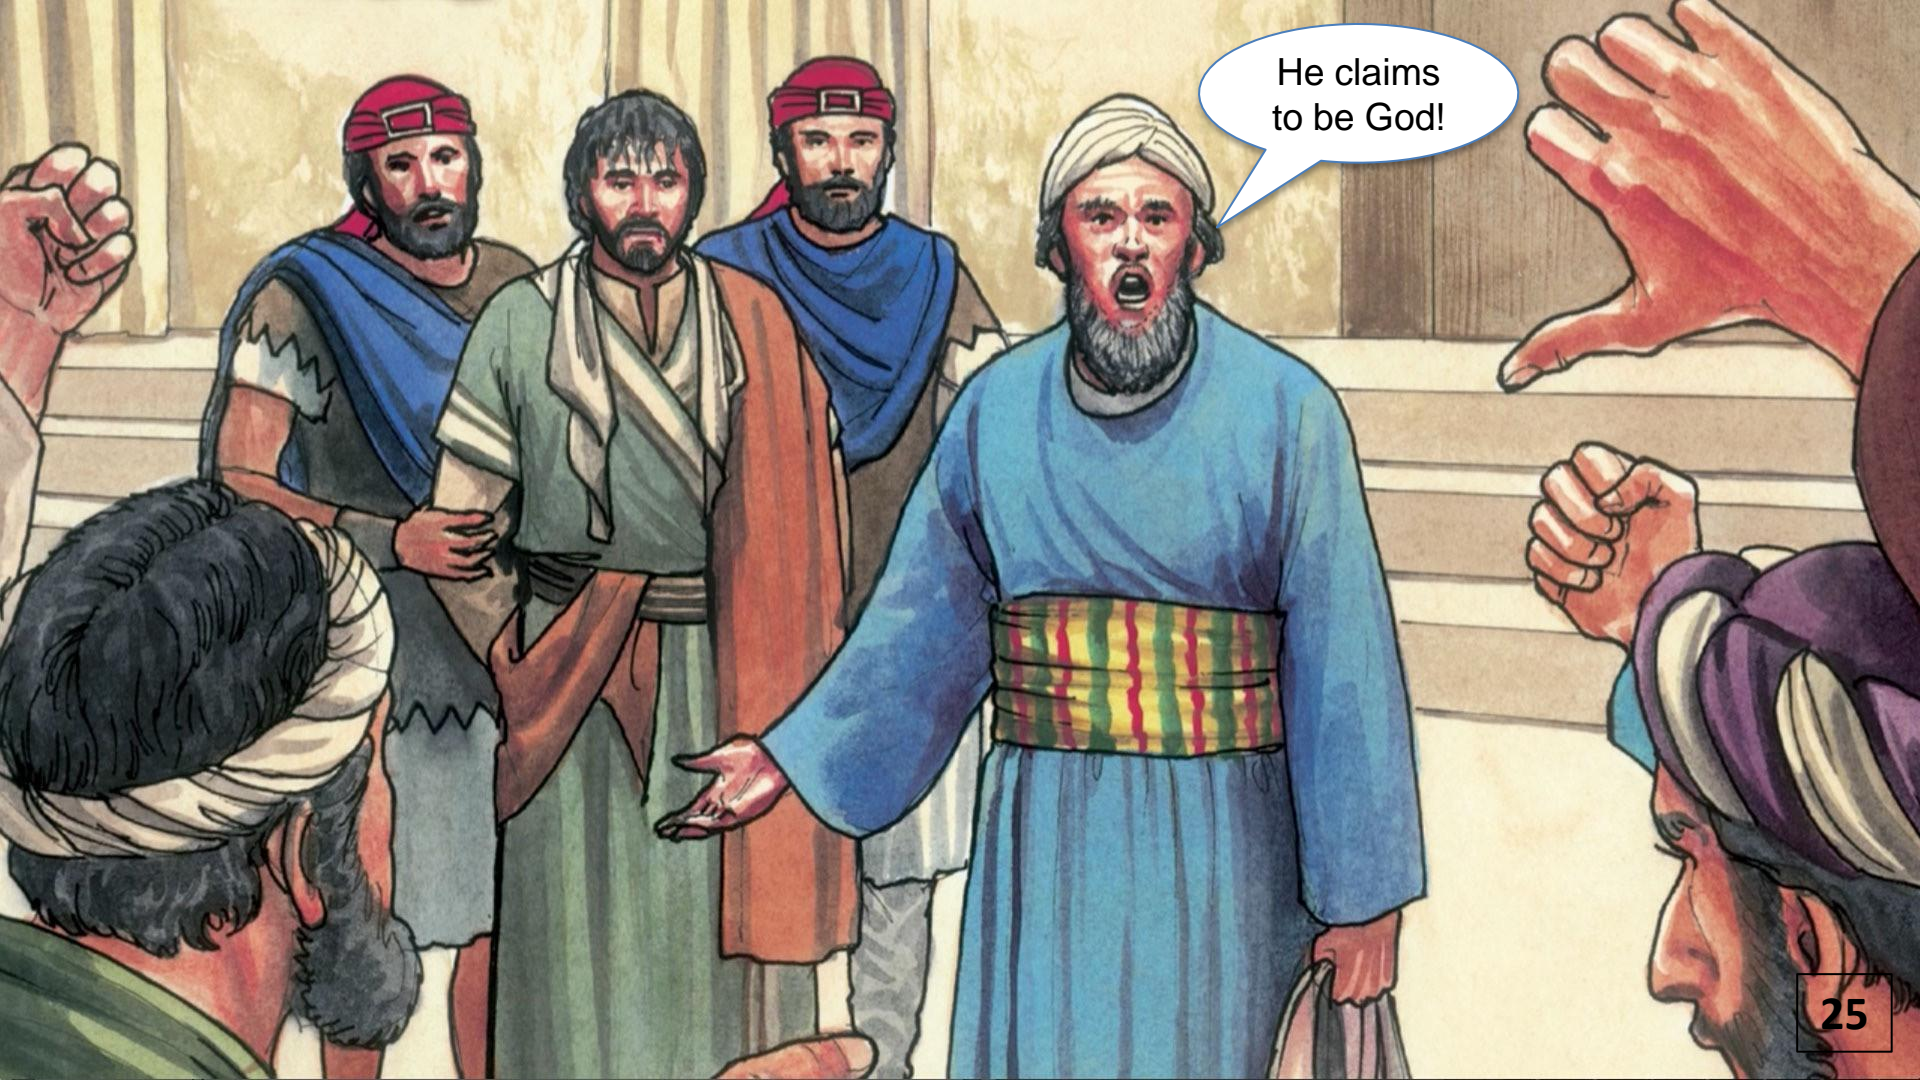

Yes! I am!

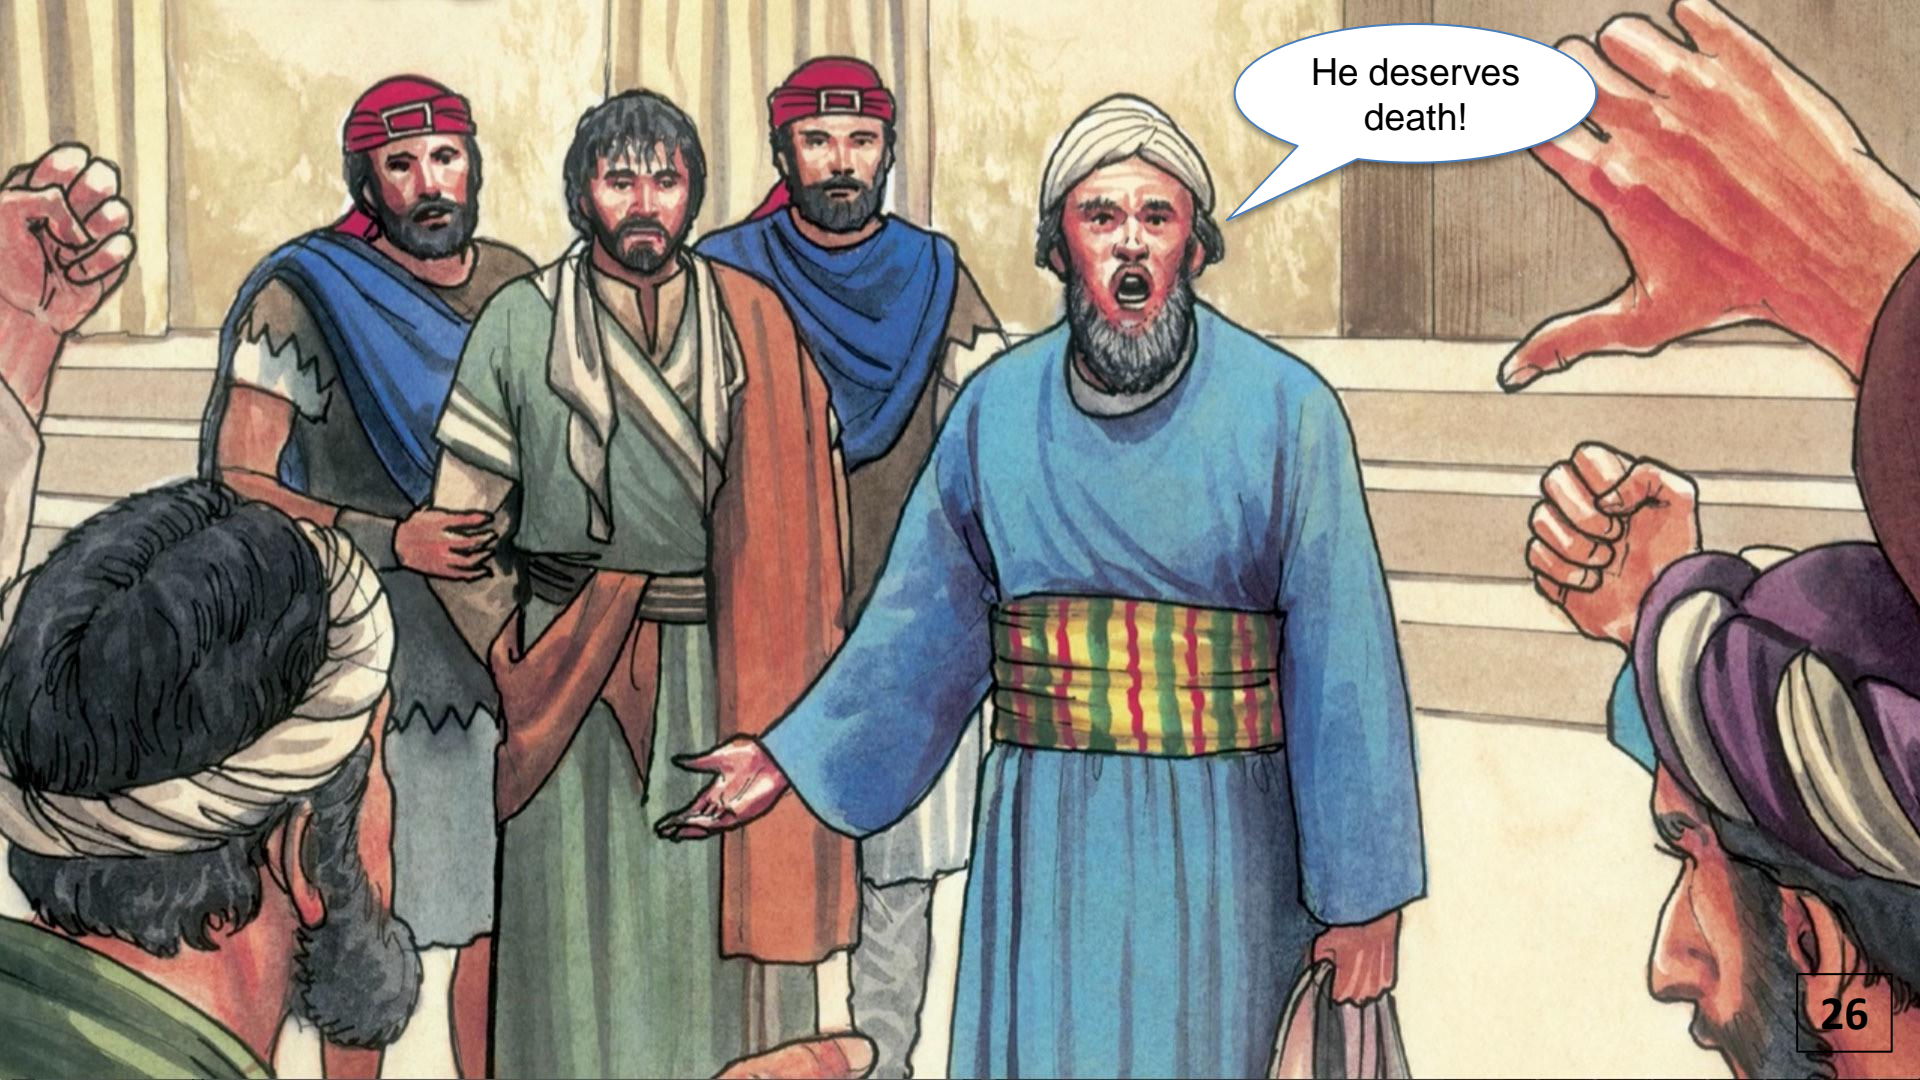

You heard
what he said!

He claims to be God!

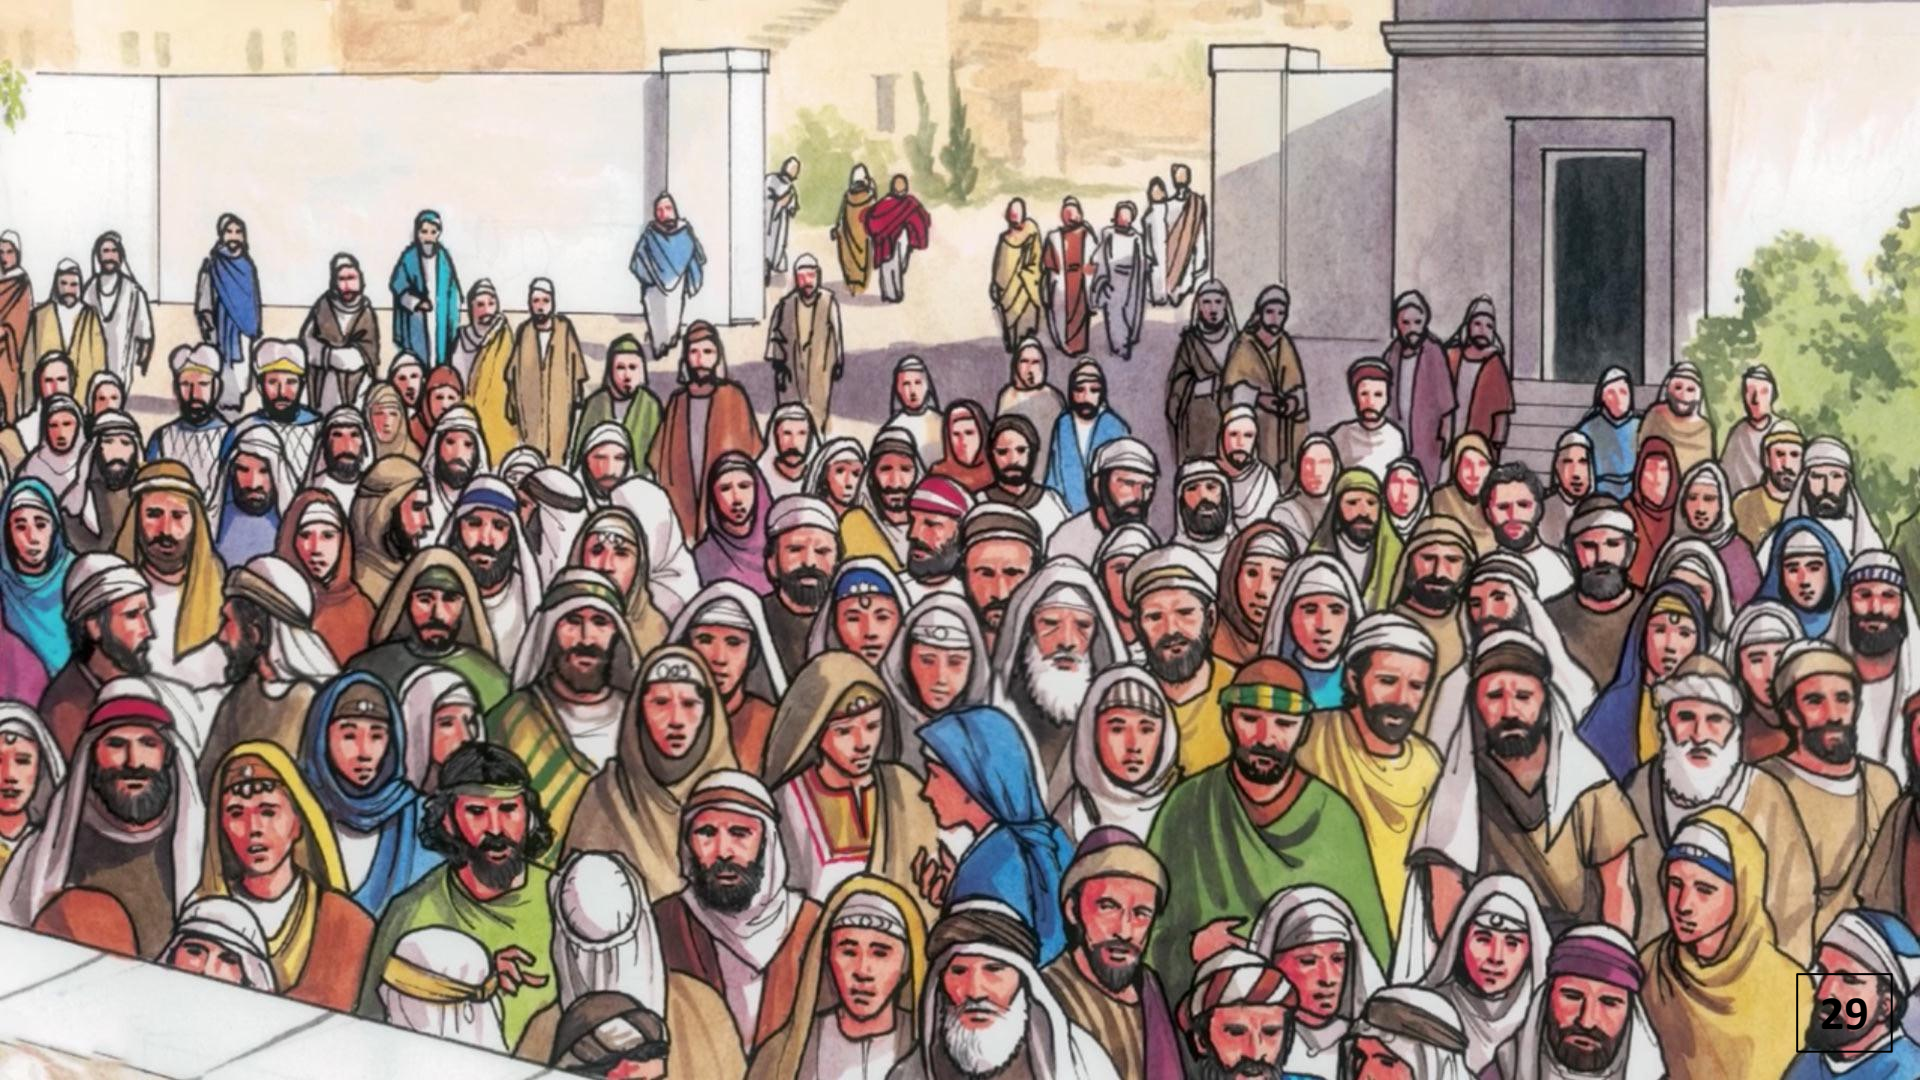

He deserves death!

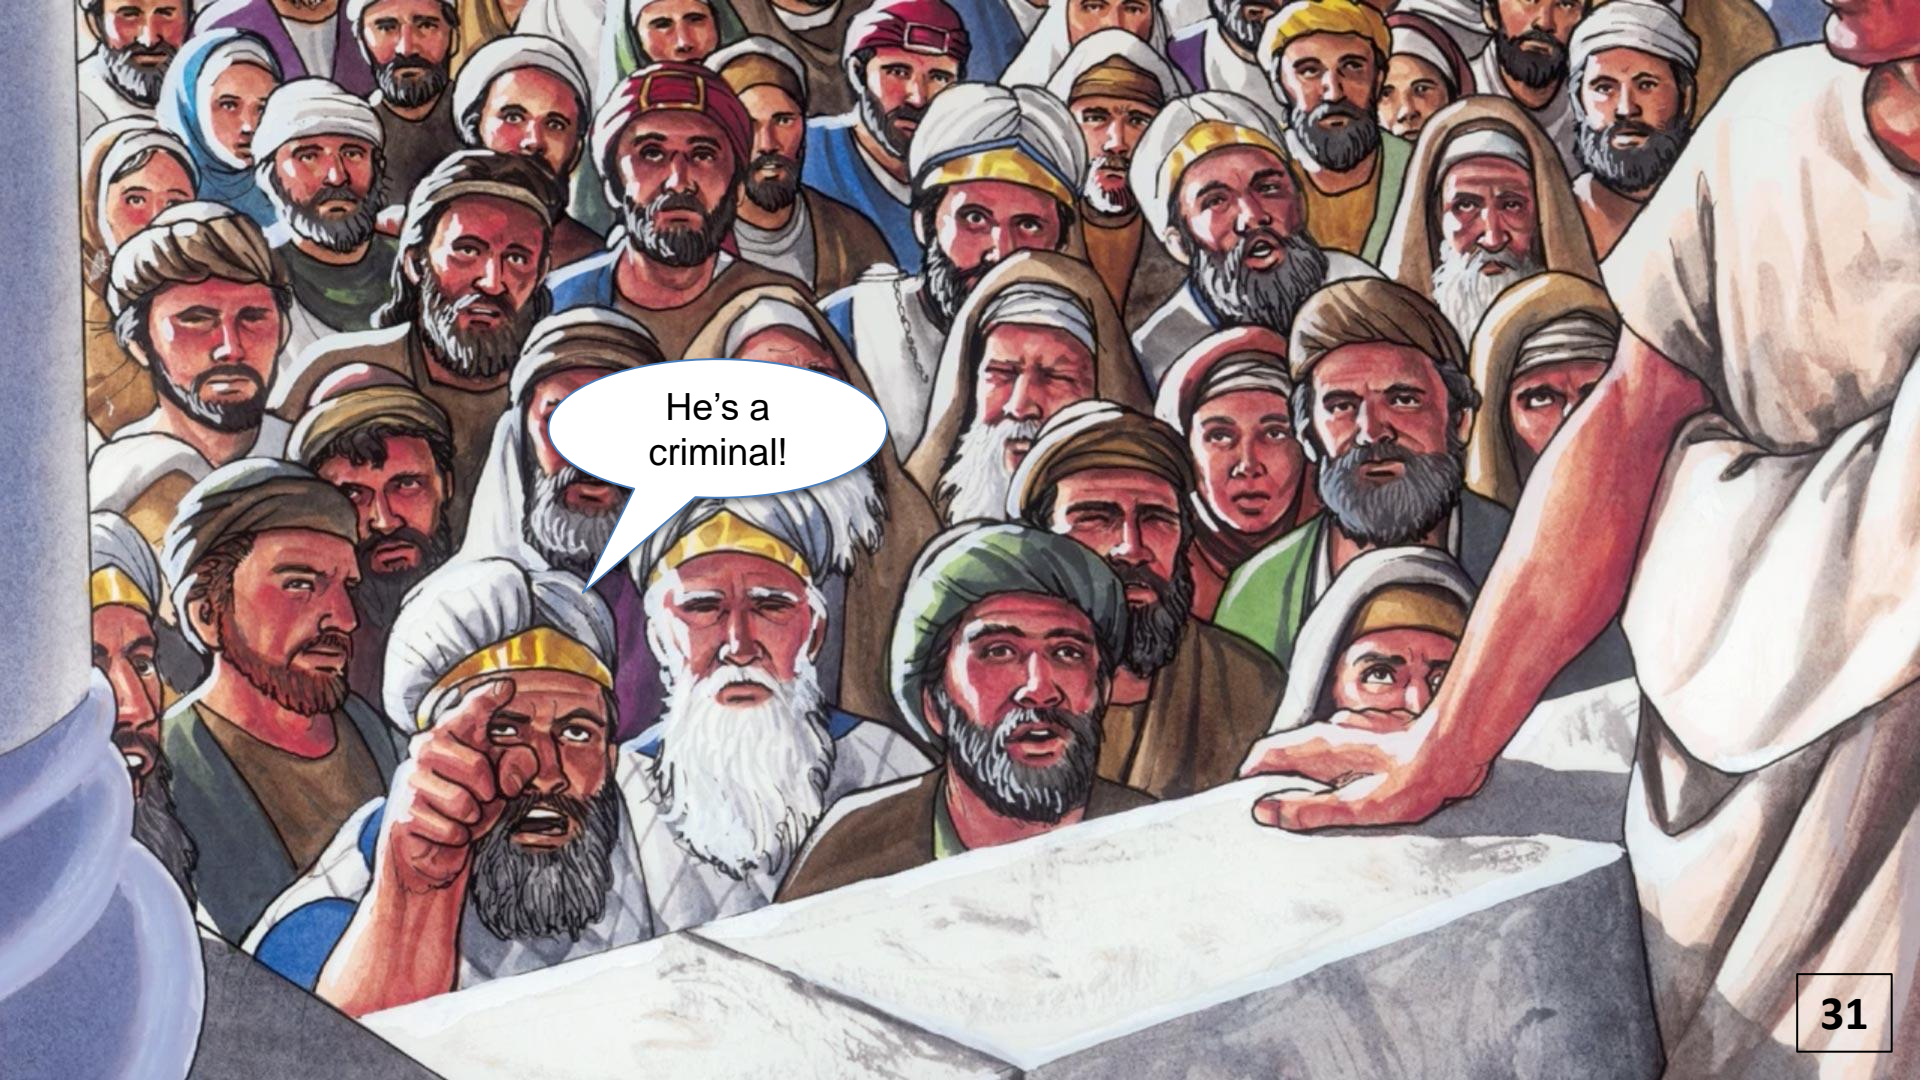

Let us take him to Pilate!

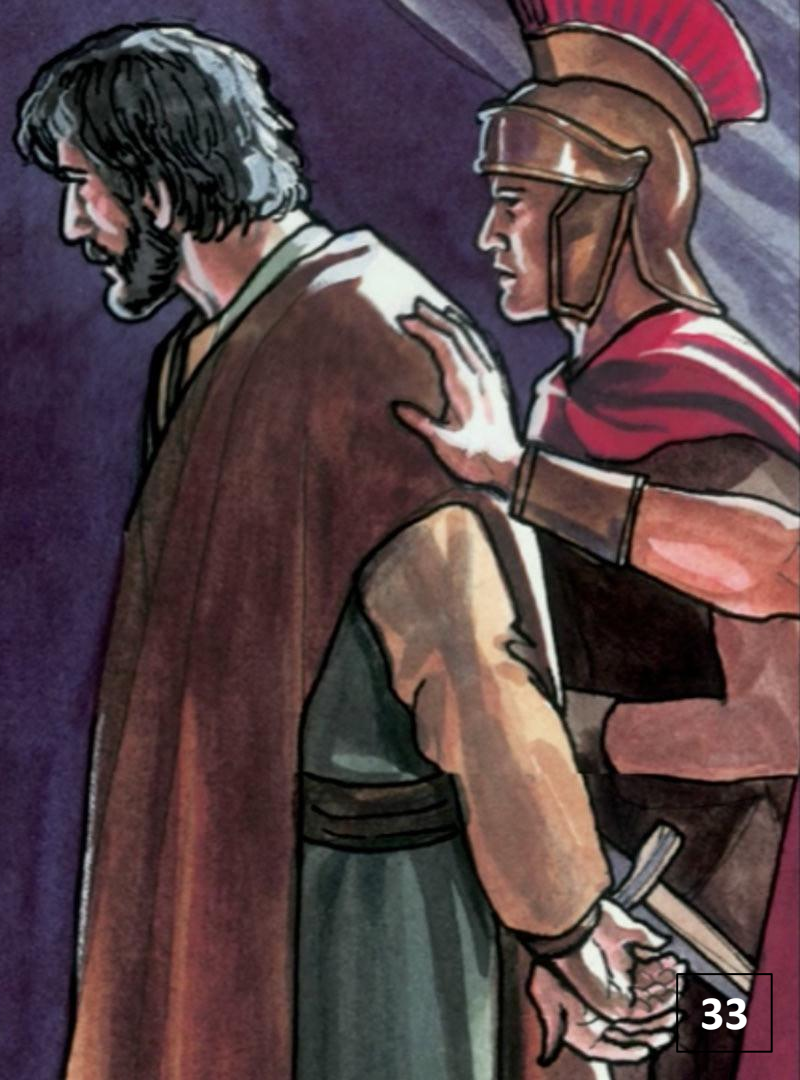

A detailed illustration of a large group of men, likely a council or a crowd, gathered around a table. The men are dressed in traditional, earth-toned clothing with various head coverings and turbans. In the foreground, a man with a long white beard and a yellow headband points his right index finger towards the left. A speech bubble originates from him, containing the text "He's a criminal!". To the right, a man in a white robe is partially visible, leaning over the table. The scene is set in a brightly lit environment, possibly outdoors or in a well-lit hall.

He's a criminal!

He deserves to die!

I cannot find anything guilty in this man!

You must!

You must!

A crowd of people in traditional attire, including turbans and head coverings, gathered in front of a stone wall. One man in a yellow robe is pointing upwards. A speech bubble above him contains the text "He is dangerous!".

He is dangerous!

Take Him to Herod!

That's good!

A man with grey hair, wearing a purple tunic and a blue robe with gold trim, sits on an ornate golden throne. He has a gold crown and armlets. A speech bubble above him contains the text: "A miracle, there, in front of me!".

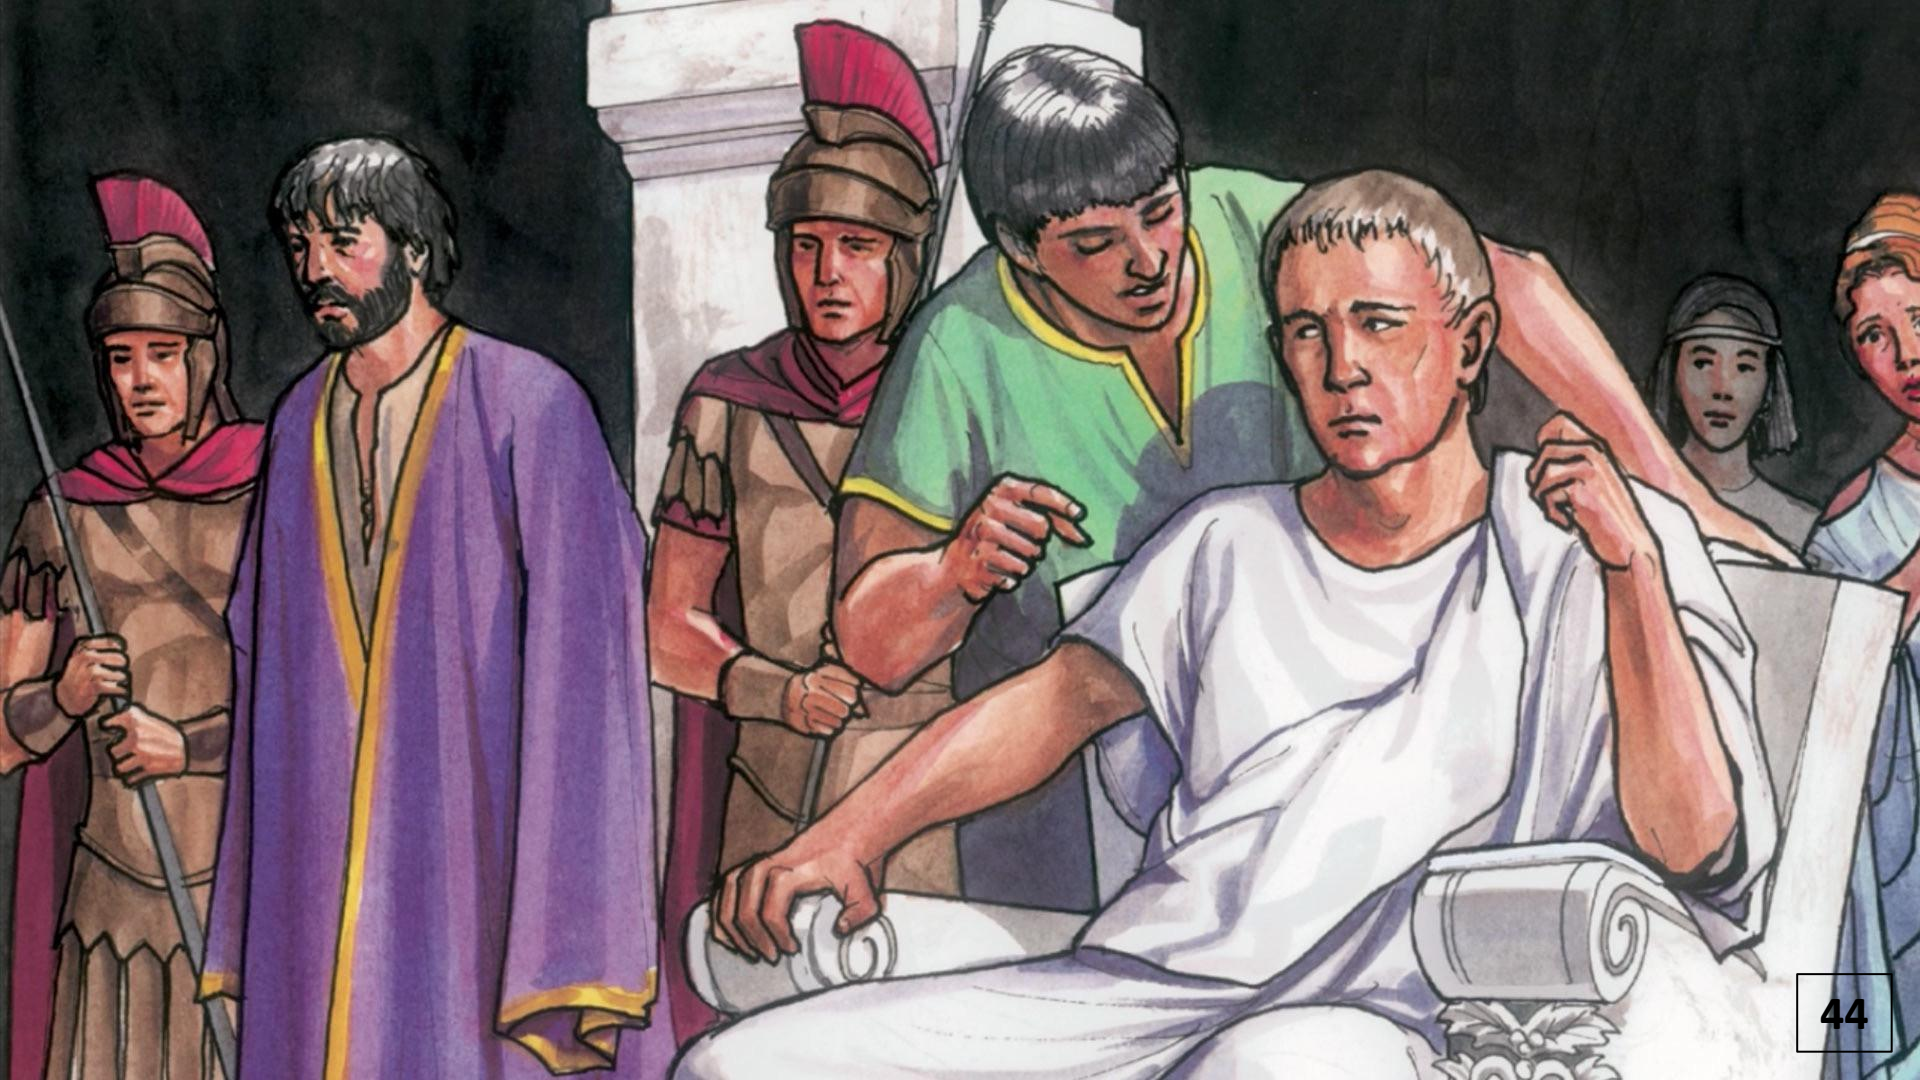

A miracle,
there, in front
of me!

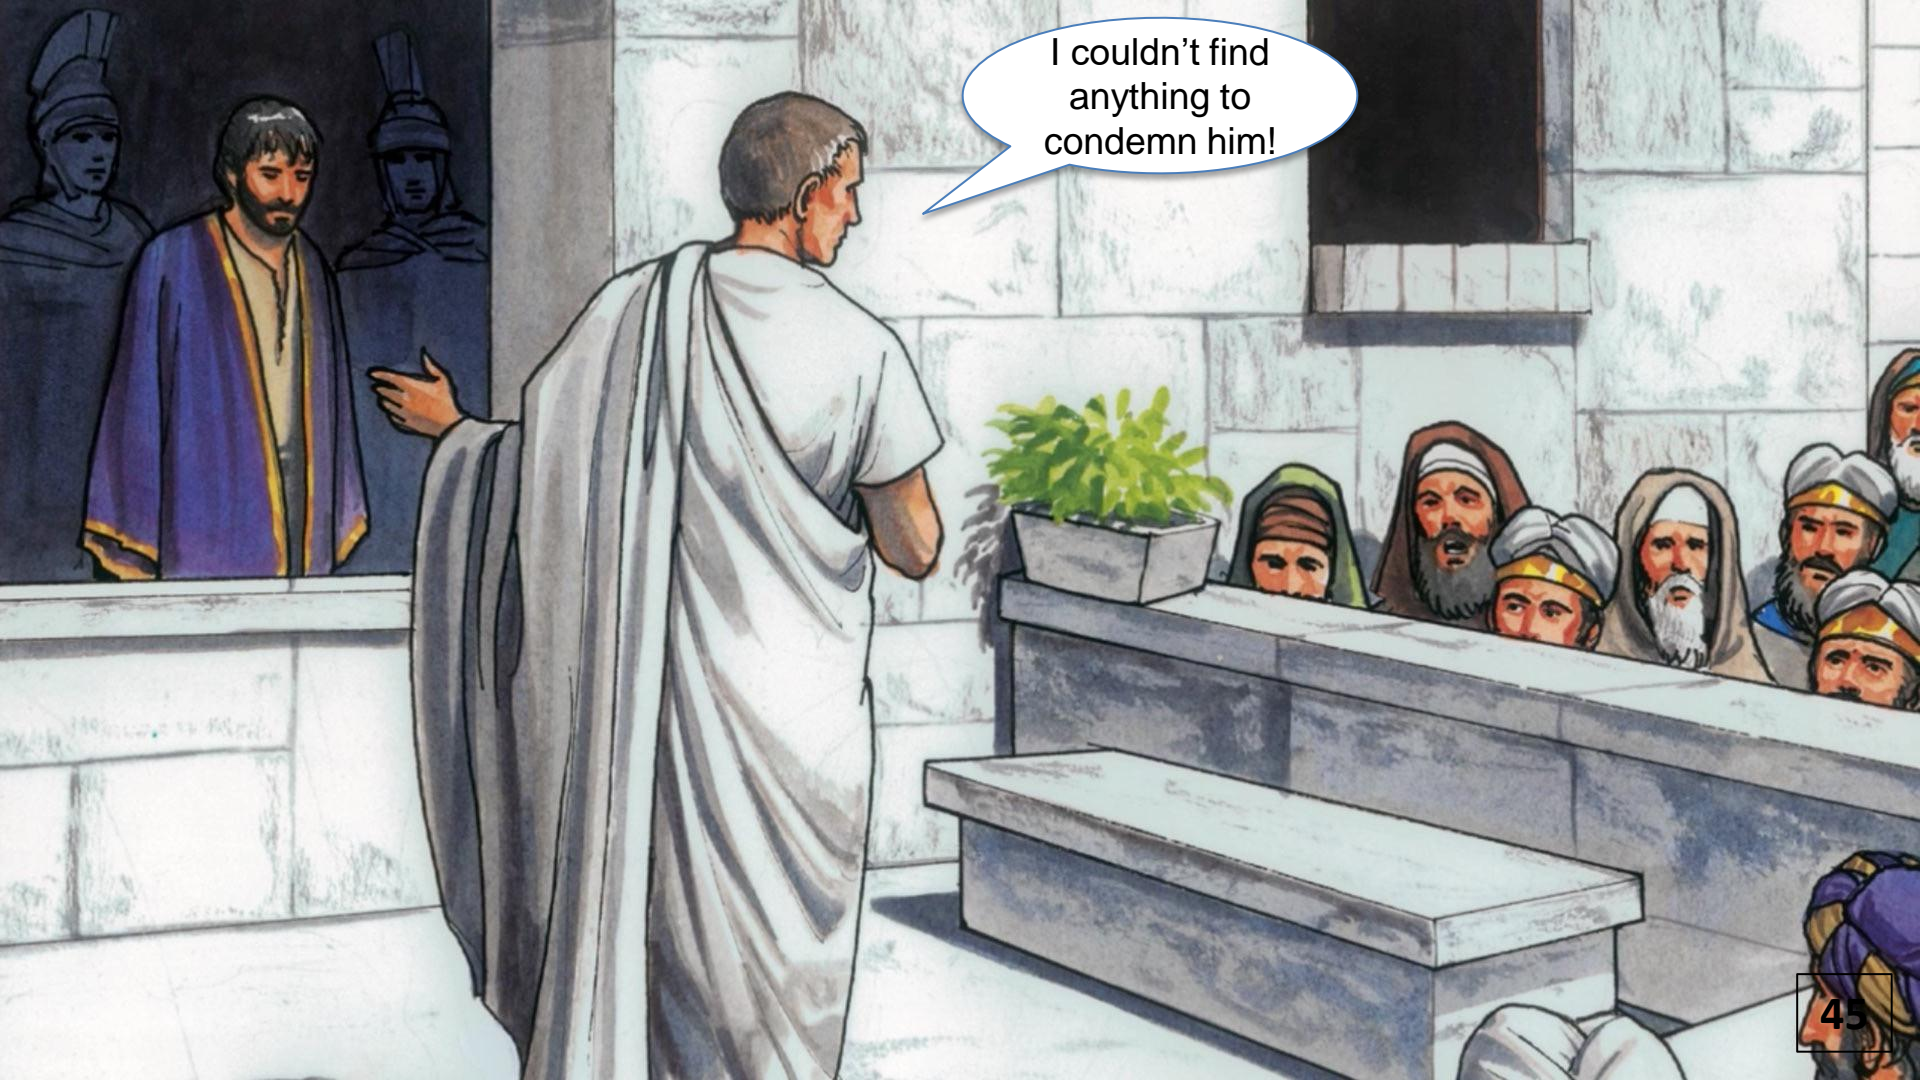

A scene from a film depicting a man in a purple and green robe with gold jewelry speaking to a man with a beard and long hair. The man in the robe is gesturing with his hands as if speaking. A speech bubble is positioned above him, containing the text "Take him back to Pilate!".

Take him back to Pilate!

I couldn't find anything to condemn him!

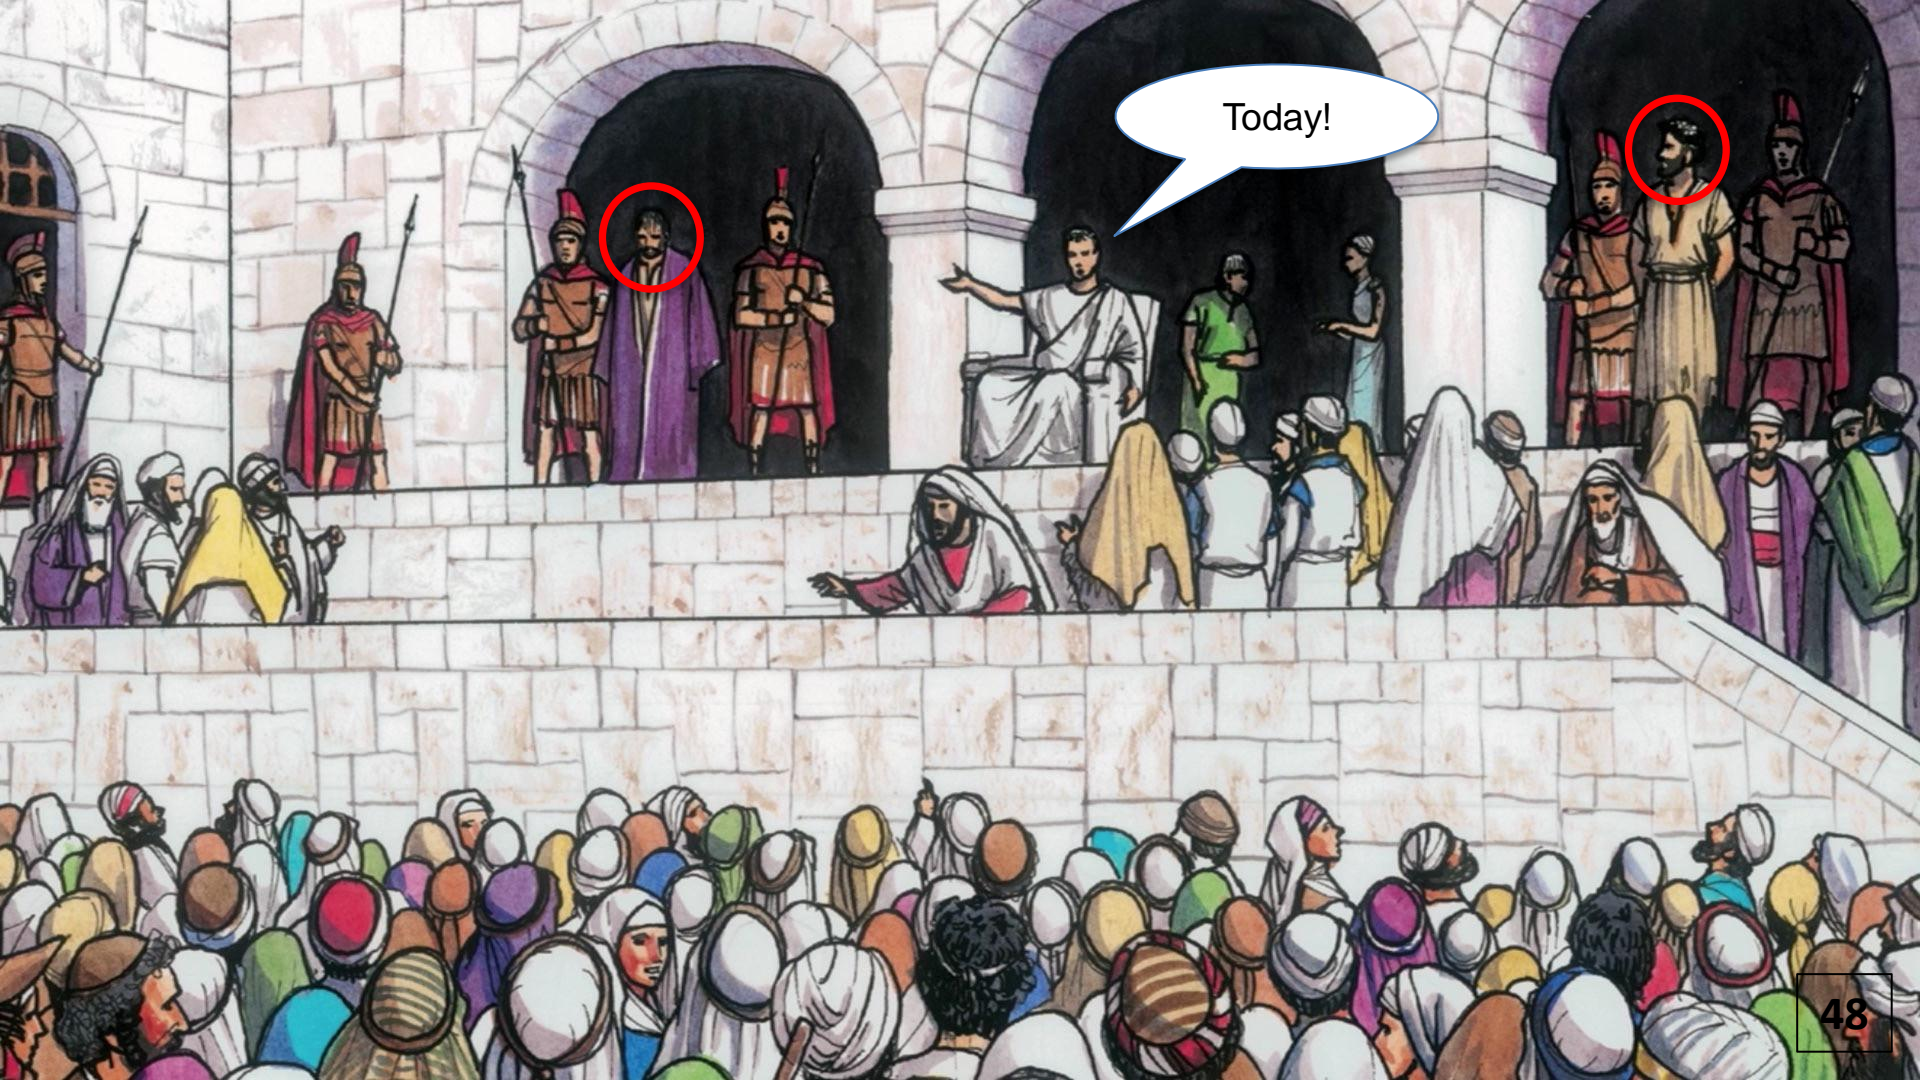

A man with short, graying hair, wearing a white tunic, stands on the left side of the frame. He is looking towards a large, diverse crowd of people gathered in an outdoor setting. The crowd consists of men and women of various ages, many wearing head coverings and traditional robes in various colors like brown, blue, yellow, and purple. The background shows a cityscape with tan-colored buildings and some greenery. A speech bubble originates from the man, containing the text "Then I'm going to release him!".

Then I'm going to release him!

No! No!

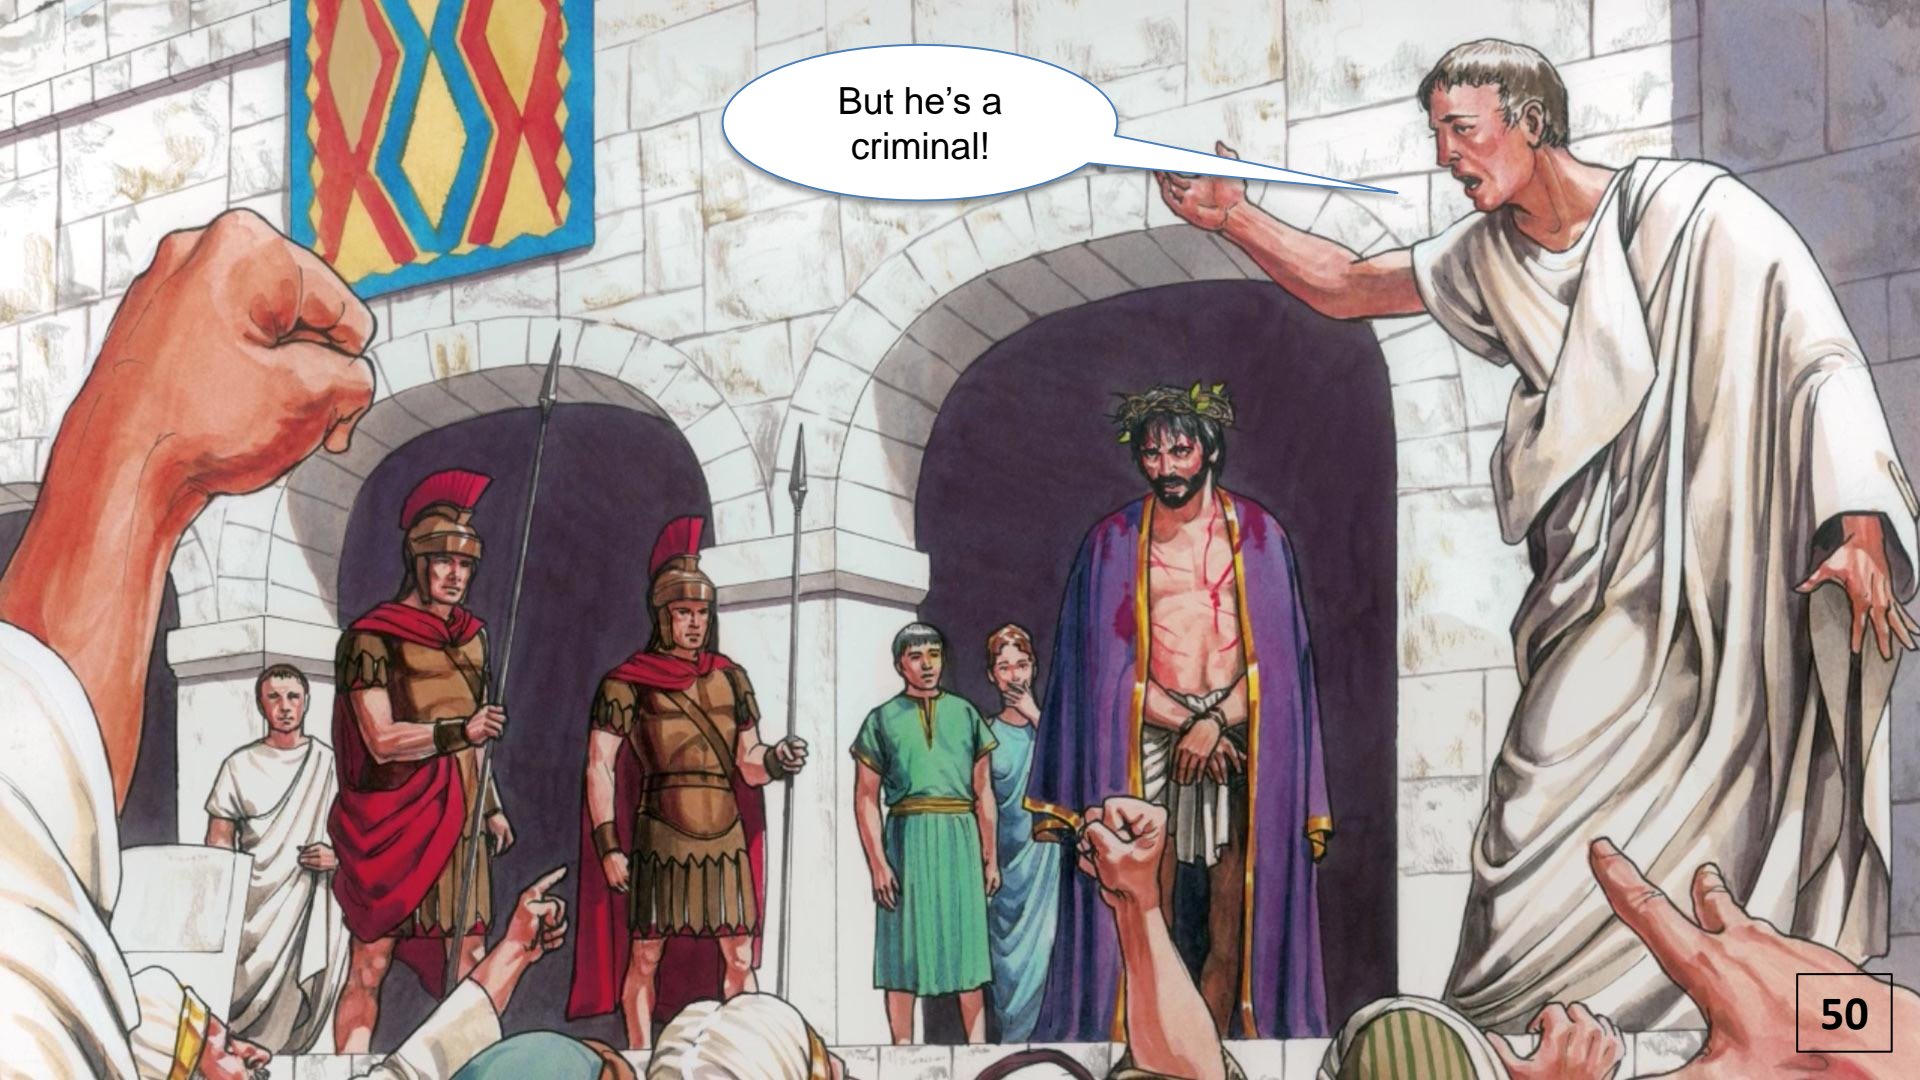

He must die!

Today!

Barabbas!

But he's a criminal!

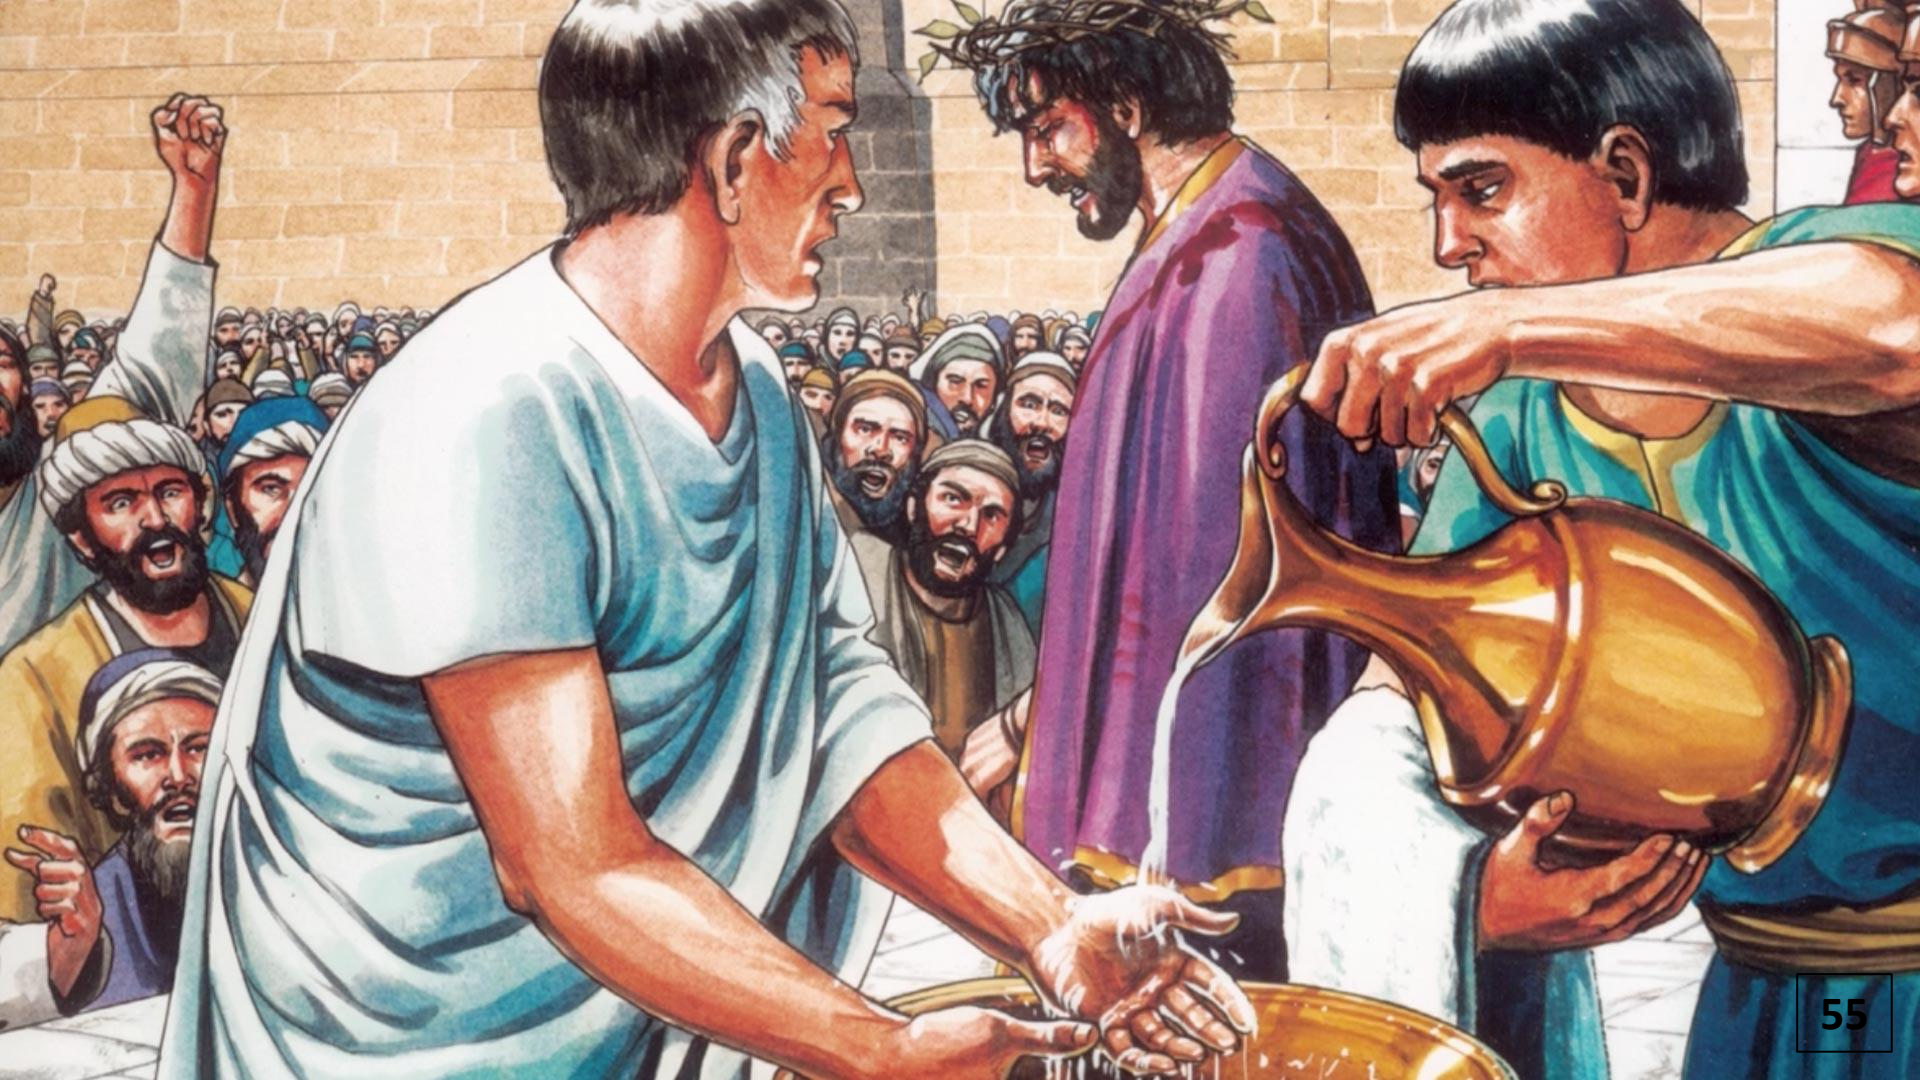

Release Barabbas!

And crucify
Jesus!

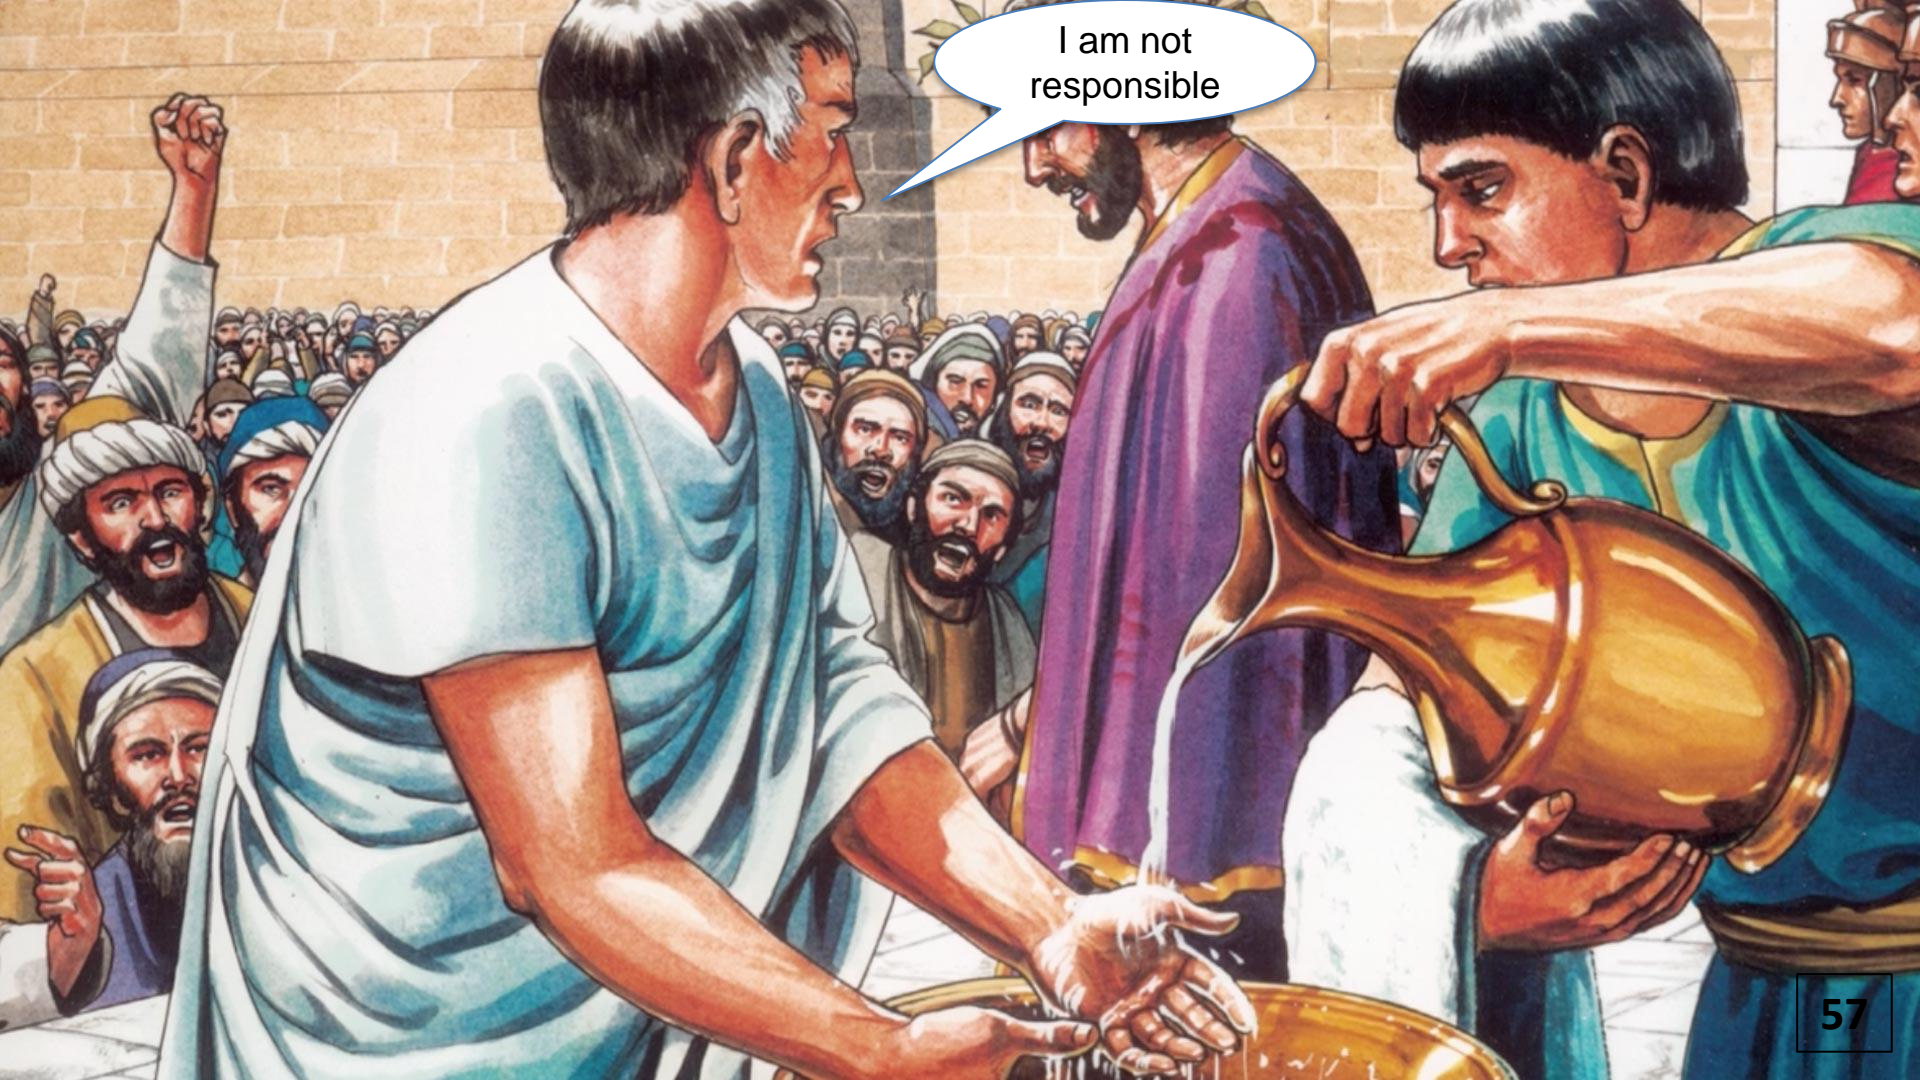

This man is innocent!

I am not responsible

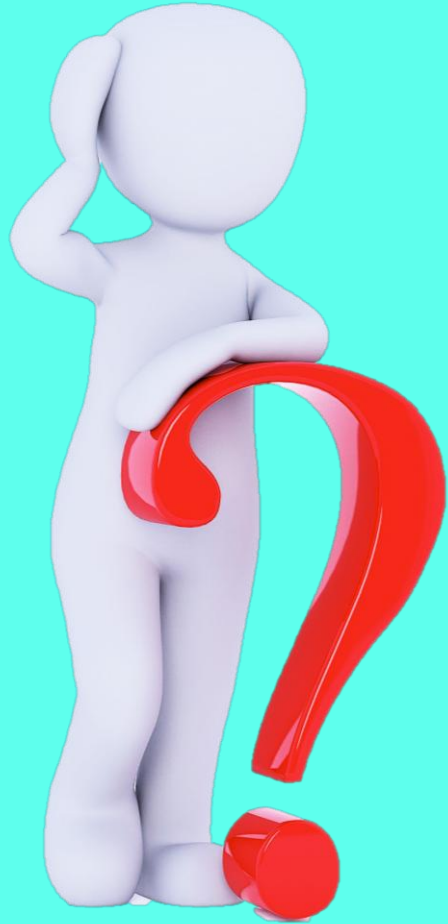

AND YOU AND ME!

Why did He accept all this without defending himself?

My Father!

Not what I want...

...but what
You want!

Jesus takes the condemnation that all men deserve

He is punished
instead of us so that God can forgive us.

AND WE PARENTS!
