

THE APOSTLE PAUL, WHO WAS HE?

Slide 1

We have often spoken of the apostles, Slide 2 Matthew, Peter, John, James, but there is one we've never talked about. It is Slide 3 the apostle Paul. Do you know his story? Do you know how he became an apostle of Jesus? This is what we are going to tell you. Paul is his name in Latin, but his Jewish name is Slide 4 Saul. He was born in a town called Tarsus that is why we call him Slide 5 Saul of Tarsus. Listen carefully to this story that you will find in the Slide 6 Book of Acts of the Apostles in chapter 9.

Slide 7 AN UNEXPECTED MEETING ON THE ROAD TO DAMASCUS

After Pentecost, the apostles perform Slide 8 so many miracles that people come running to Slide 9 to be healed and the number of disciples Slide 10 continues to increase. But they are persecuted by Slide 11 the religious leaders who are furious. So, many are Slide 12 leaving Jerusalem. They disperse in the country. Some will even settle in Slide 13 Damascus, the capital of Syria.

Slide 14 Saul of Tarsus is a very religious young Jewish man who does not believe that Jesus is the promised savior. Slide 15 He is filled with hatred towards the disciples. By chasing them to send them to prison, Slide 16 he thinks he is defending his God.

Slide 17 - I'm going to Damascus, he says to the High Priest. If I find supporters of this Jesus there, I will bring them here in chains and they will be thrown in jail. Slide 18 We must put an end to these people's doings! Slide 19 When the disciples in Damascus hear the news of his coming, they are very worried.

Slide 20 - This man is terrible, they say. He's chasing us even here! Slide 21 No one can stop him. Slide 22 The trip goes smoothly and Saul is now very close to the goal. His plan action is well established. He moves forward with pride and determination.

Slide 23 He now sees the walls which surround Slide 24 Damascus. The sun is high in the sky. It is shining brightly, the heat is stifling. Slide 25 Suddenly around noon, a supernatural light, Slide 26 like a flash surrounds him, It is even brighter than that of the sun. Slide 27 He is dazzled and falls to the ground, as if struck down. A voice from heaven is heard:

Slide 28 - Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?

Saul is scared. It's not a man's voice. He is in the presence of a Divine Person.

Slide 29 - Who are you, Lord? He cries out.

Slide 30 - I am Jesus whom you are persecuting!

All of Saul's pride and arrogance vanishes. Slide 31 There he is, prostrate, in the dust, utterly miserable. He is at the feet of Jesus. This Jesus whom he believed to be dead, He sees Him in His glory. It's as if everything Slide 32 around him is falling apart. What is Jesus going to do? Slide 33 Will he condemn? Punish him? Seized with fear, he asks:

Slide 34 - Lord, what do you want me to do?

- Get up, enter the town, and there, you will be told what to do.

Slide 35 Saul gets up. He opens his eyes. Then he closes them. He opens them wide again. He rubs them but everything is dark!

Slide 36 - Oh! I cannot see anymore! I am blind! He said, groping.

Slide 37 His companions take him by the hand and lead him like a little child.

Slide 38 During three days he stays with a man called Judas. He does not eat. He doesn't drink. He prays. He remembers in his head all his life, his hate, his violence. Slide 39 He sees the face and the tears of those men and women he persecuted. Slide 40 He begs for forgiveness from God and accepts Jesus as his Savior and his Lord. Slide 41 In a vision he sees a man called Ananias who lays his hands on him to restore his sight. Slide 42 But who is this Ananias? How could he find him? Here, no one knows where he is. Saul doesn't worry, he knows that now the Lord is leading his life. Slide 43 He waits while praying.

On the third day, the Lord appears in a vision to an inhabitant of Damascus, a disciple. He tells him: Slide 44 - Ananias!

Slide 45 - Here I am, Lord, replies the man, I am listening to you.

- Get up and go to the house of Judas. Slide 46 Ask to see a man called Saul of Tarsus. Lay your hands on him so that he can get his sight back.

Slide 47 - But, Lord, replies Ananias, I have heard a lot about this man. We have been told about all the evil he did to your disciples in Jerusalem. And I know he came here to persecute us.

Slide 48 - Don't be afraid of him! He is no longer a persecutor but one of my disciples. I chose him to be a witness to the Jews, but also to other peoples and to many kings. I called him to be an apostle.

Ananias is reassured. Slide 49 Once at Judas 'house, he finds a young man with a peaceful beaming face. He lays his hands on him. At this moment something that looks like scales falls from Saul's eyes and the miracle occurs.

Slide 50 - I can see! I can see you all perfectly well! He says quite upset. The Lord gave me my sight back! Slide 51 I was a cruel and wicked man but He showed me His mercy. He made a new man of me.

Slide 52 Saul is baptized. He meets the disciples of Damascus. All together they praise God for this great miracle.

Slide 53 Without delay, he begins to talk about Jesus throughout the town. He preaches courageously in synagogues.

Slide 54 - Jesus is risen. He is truly the Son of God, the Savior that God has promised us.

Slide 55 People are amazed.

- Come, they say to each other, for sure he is the one who persecuted the disciples of Jesus! He came here on purpose to arrest them and take them in chains! And now he says Jesus is God. How is it possible?

Slide 56 Saul continues to preach the gospel, but after a while Slide 57 the religious leaders want to make him disappear.

- He's a traitor! They say. He troubles the people. Slide 58 We're going to watch the city gates day and night to get hold of him and kill him.

Saul and the disciples are warned of the plot.

Slide 59 - We're going to sneak you out of town, they tell him.

One night, they lead him to the wall that surrounds the city. Slide 60 They put him in a big basket and with the help of ropes, they bring him down along the rampart. Saul is saved. He is going to pursue the mission that the Lord has entrusted to him.

Slide 61 1, 2 3, 4 AND YOU AND ME!

You saw how this encounter with Jesus transformed Saul of Tarsus. His life was completely changed, his thoughts, his feelings, everything is different for him now. It's a change of direction. Slide 62 The fanatic and hateful young man has become Slide 63 the apostle Paul. He is now filled with love for God and for others. Slide 64 With a lot of courage, he proclaims the gospel in different countries. You can find the story of his three great missionary journeys in Slide 65 the Book of Acts of the Apostles. I encourage you to read them.

Slide 66 4, 3, 2, 1 AND WE PARENTS!

The account of Saul's conversion contains points in common with Slide 67 all conversion (Slide 68 the repentance, Slide 69 faith, Slide 70 consecration to God ...), but it also has very specific ones that cannot be transposed to any other conversion, which is particularly true for our children. Slide 71 I suggest you accompany them in the discovery of Paul's missionary journeys. You can follow his movements on the maps that are in appendices of your Bible. And remember that if God changed someone like Saul from Tarsus, he can do the same for your family. Keep this hope!

Slide 72